Windows 10. Hmm... It looks interesting so I took the liberty of downloading it. Unfortunately when I opened it, it froze my windows 10 Pro for about 30 seconds. I waited it out, which wasn't long, and then tried to close it. The closing dialogue box blocked my mouse from clicking cancel and I couldn't close it. When the music was over, the function did load up its own screen with the Name and Hint format and is this in a pull down menu? I couldn't find a way to use it. Needless to say, I'm trying to do more research before installing this app in case it's virus. Have you ever noticed that your mouse quickly goes crazy when using windows 10? So I tested this software on my PC and saw that when I copy past text in the browser (Google Chrome) I'm going crazy when I open and close the program, the screen shows the name of the program and the hint and the whole combo gets shifted, and this happens to my PC and my brother's PC and my friends PC, and it doesn't happen to my phone or the computer of my parents, but I've gone crazy to open and close the program and it looks like a virus to me, a virus that copied my mouse. I have tried to open and close the program several times and it only happens when I open and close it. I have it installed on my computer and it happens.
